Featuring Eddie Irving and the Classic Swing Band playing from 7:30-10:30

Eddie Irving and The Classic Swing Band is based in Dallas, TX but travels throughout North Texas and surrounding area. From the dance rhythms of the Big Band Era to the melodic strains of those memorable love songs from the 40s and 50s, Eddie Irving and the band offer it all.

What music we have come to know as "classics" is those songs that have brought enjoyment to generations of people with their timeless melodies and lyrics. Swing, Jazz, and Big Band sound.

Since his college days, Eddie has been singing his way into the hearts of many fans across the North Texas area. His appreciation for the great love ballads and catchy swing tunes of a generation ago has allowed him to develop into one of the "smoothest voices" in any working band today. You will love his unique vocal style!

"I grew up with swing, jazz and the great American standards playing in my home.

Although my mother taught each of her four children to appreciate the melodies and harmonies of that beautiful music, the love of music that "struck a chord within me" lay dormant for many years. When I was invited to join The Classic Swing Band a few years ago, I was delighted to finally have the opportunity to sing the music I grew up with and share my heart through these songs of love and life!"
